St. Edward’s University students will develop their abilities to synthesize and apply learning to effect positive change in personal, local, and global contexts through the continued acquisition of

University Essential Learning Outcomes

Knowledge of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- Demonstrate competence in a specific discipline.
- Integrate a broad liberal arts and sciences perspective within the discipline.
- Articulate the roles of liberal arts and sciences in society.

Intellectual and Applied Sciences
- Communicate effectively through oral, written, and visual forms.
- Demonstrate information, quantitative, and visual literacies in a variety of contexts.
- Use critical, creative, and collaborative thinking to solve problems and achieve common goals.

Personal and Social Responsibility
- Develop skills to maintain mental and physical wellness.
- Identify and analyze one’s own spiritual and cultural perspectives and demonstrate respect for others’ views and values.
- Integrate global perspectives and moral reasoning to make personal and professional decisions in pursuit of social justice.